Office Action Summary

The election of species is rendered moot by applicant's cancellation of claims 8-11.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soon-Shiong et al in view of Vacanti et al.

Soong – Shiong et al teach a composition comprising a mixture of polymers and cells, wherein the polymers are crosslinkable (claims 1, 5). Alginate, crosslinking by UV light, and the photoinitiater 2,2-Dimethoxy-2-Phenyl acetophenone are specified (Example 17). A cocatalyst, triethanolamine, is specified (column 7, lines 36-37). Living cells are specified (column 9 line 2-6). Polymerization is specific, Local, and rapid (column 3 lines 60-61).

Vacanti et al teach seeding artificial matrices with chondrocytes to make cartilage (column 3 lines 17-42).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to use chondrocytes as the living cells in Soon-Shiong et al to achieve the beneficial effect of cartilage formation from an artificial matrix in view of Vacanti et al.

Applicants argue but do not claim a mold.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1 "cells" is vague.

Do applicants intend chondrocytes for making the now claimed cartilage?

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for interpenetrating polymer networks, does not reasonably provide enablement for any polymer composition. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. On page 3 lines 5-9 the above-cited networks are disclosed. No broader polymer compositions are specified. Applicants originally claimed crosslinking.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S. Patent No. 6,224,893.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims encompass are ~~encompassed by~~ those of the patent.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
